

Volunteer agreement

Thank for your interest in our association, we are here to spread our love and share all we have with the children of Nepal. We would love you to join and help us to provide them a healthy and loving environment.

Volunteers have to be 18 years and above, volunteers under the age of 18 must provide our association with their legal guardian's written consent before starting their journey.

Accommodation

- Volunteers are responsible for arranging and booking their own accommodation prior to their arrival.
- Our association will be happy to provide them with the Home's location details to facilitate the booking.
- Accommodation needs to be close to the Home for the volunteers to easily access the work space.
- It is up to the volunteers to choose between a private or shared room that they should maintain as if it was their own.
- Volunteers will cover the commuting expenses between their accommodation and the Home.

Insurance

- Volunteers should hold a personal travel and medical insurance to cover their overall stay at our Home.

Passport and Visa

- Volunteers should make sure their passport and visa are valid throughout their stay and they will be responsible for their visa's renewal / extension if needs be.

Airport pick up and drop

- Smile for Hope can book the airport pick up / drop off, cost to be covered by volunteers.

Expenses

- Volunteers to cover their personal expenses.

Meals

- Our association will provide basic food ingredients to prepare meals in the Home, any extras should be covered by the volunteers themselves.

Code of conduct

All volunteers are kindly requested to adhere to proper conduct and follow the instructions of our team. This covers, but does not limit to, respecting others and the culture, working responsibly and with a clear conscience, treating the Home and residents with love, patience and understanding and avoiding drugs and/or illegal activities. Engaging in illegal, violent or improper behavior will lead to immediate cancellation of the agreement. The Home is a warm welcoming place, volunteers will be considered and treated like family and expected to do the same in return, should they face any issues or needs the team will be ready to help at any moment.

I confirm that I have read and signed the agreement
